Commander, Second Region (ROTC), U.S. Army Cadet Command, Fort
Knox, KY 40121
Commander, Fourth Region (ROTC), U.S. Army Cadet Command, Fort
Lewis, WA 98433

SUBJECT: The Corporation for the Promotion of Rifle Practice and Firearms Safety, Inc. (CMP) Scholarships

1. The Corporation for the Promotion of Rifle and Firearms Safety, Inc. (CMP) will provide scholarship assistance to encourage and reward outstanding and deserving students in JROTC/ROTC programs who also excel in a marksmanship or rifle team program at their schools. The CMP seeks applications from the students enrolling in a four-year college or university or from students who are already in pursuit of a four-year degree.

2. The CMP will award a maximum of one hundred $1,000
one-year scholarships for undergraduate college or university study on the basis of merit and financial need. Scholarships may be one-year awards or multi-year (2-, 3- or 4-year) awards.
Students who receive a multi-year scholarship may retain their scholarships in subsequent years if they remain enrolled in ROTC, maintain a 2.5 GPA, continue to participate in ROTC or college rifle team activities, and continue to meet the good moral character standards of the Nomination Eligibility.

3. Nomination Eligibility: The cadets selected for these scholarships must:

- a. Be a U.S. citizen.
- b. Be of good moral character.
